PRESS RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Date: 15 September 2006

Campbell Tickell's new recruit

Independent management consultancy Campbell Tickell today announced the appointment of a new senior consultant, Dr. Radojka Miljevic, to their central team.

Radojka has worked as a consultant for nearly four years. She has worked particularly with housing associations and local authorities, plus a number of private clients. Radojka brings extensive experience of corporate services and facilities management, having worked in these fields in the private and higher education sectors.

Radojka said: "I have always been committed to delivering the best for my clients and enabling them to develop and progress. Campbell Tickell share my core ideals of integrity, application and delivering on promises. I am delighted to have the opportunity to contribute my ideas and passion to their considerable (and growing!) list of clients."

Said Greg Campbell, Director of Campbell Tickell: "Radojka brings a versatile range of skills and abilities. She is widely respected for her intelligence, professionalism and inclusive way of working. She is an excellent all-rounder, and we're delighted to welcome her on board. Her backgrounds in project management, research and analysis in different sectors will be invaluable to the organisations with which we work."

Notes to Editors

1. Campbell Tickell (formerly Greg Campbell Management Consultancy) was established in 1998. In 2004, after 10 years as Deputy Chief Executive of the National Housing Federation, James Tickell joined Greg Campbell as a Director.
2. The consultancy provides a comprehensive range of services for housing associations, councils, ALMOs, charities, and government departments and agencies. They have worked with more than 160 organisations. Alongside Greg Campbell, James Tickell and the central team, there is a network of around 70 associate consultants, both generalist and specialist, who work with the practice.
