PRESS RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Date: 17 September 2007

Sue Harvey to join Campbell Tickell

Campbell Tickell today announced that experienced finance and governance consultant Sue Harvey is to join them as a senior consultant.

Sue joins the established core team, now seven strong. Campbell Tickell has undertaken a wide range of projects for over 250 clients from housing associations, charities and government bodies. These cover all aspects of strategy, operations and policy.

Sue is taking on a caseload of governance and business planning work, and will be working alongside Campbell Tickell's network of 80 associate consultants.

Sue said: "I've worked with Campbell Tickell for 2 years, and have been impressed by the range of their projects and their innovative thinking. I very much look forward to working with Campbell Tickell's strong client base, and maintaining the high standards that people have come to expect."

Said James Tickell, Director of Campbell Tickell: "Sue is a highly knowledgeable consultant with a wealth of experience to offer and a long track record. She will be a welcome addition to our team, allowing us to continue the growth and development of the consultancy."

Notes to Editors

1. Campbell Tickell (formerly Greg Campbell Management Consultancy) was established in 1998. In 2004, after 10 years as Deputy Chief Executive of the National Housing Federation, James Tickell joined Greg Campbell as a Director. The practice provides a comprehensive range of services for housing associations, councils, ALMOs, charities, and government departments and agencies. The consultancy has worked with more than 250 organisations. Alongside Greg Campbell and James Tickell and the core team, there is a network of around 80 associate consultants, both generalist and specialist, who work with the practice.
2. Sue Harvey has been working as a financial consultant in the housing sector for over 10 years. Prior to that she worked in retail financial services and macro-economic consulting. She has held Board positions in the NHS, social housing, regeneration and supported housing sectors.
