New talent in CT's governance team

Multidisciplinary consultancy Campbell Tickell (CT) has welcomed Ceri Victory-Rowe as Senior Consultant into its governance team.

Ceri brings a track record of experience in housing, regulation and governance, as well as previous consulting experience in one of the large accountancy firms. She has non-executive experience as a member of the Regulatory Board for Wales, as well as with the Chartered Institute of Housing and housing associations. A former management consultant with PwC, she has worked for Nottingham City Council, The Housing Corporation, and other councils and housing associations. She spent seven years at the University of the West of England, as a senior lecturer and then programme leader.

She joins CT's 32-strong core team with its governance team of six responsible for delivering a governance offer that is informed by cross-sectoral insight and learning.

Ceri commented: "I am thrilled to join CT. I have worked with the consultancy as an associate for the last 18 months and have enjoyed every minute. I'm joining an extremely strong team and am very excited to become part of it'.

Radojka Miljevic, CT's partner leading the governance team said: "Ceri has demonstrated the brilliant all-round skills and agility required of an effective consultant. She brings heart, intellect and quality to her work, and is a great fit with CT's values".
